

Non-transformed variables with a non-linear relationship.

Transforming variables can provide a near-linear relationship.

